

Let's practice!

Are you a good *cook?

* "Cook" is also used as a noun for a person, not cooker.

Instructions: Read each sentence, and circle all the verbs related to cooking.

1. Would you mind chopping some onions?
2. I've got to saute the onions before adding them to the sauce.
3. I'll need to let the sauce simmer.
4. I have to stir the sauce slowly while it's cooking.

Let's practice!

Let's get the pot on the stove.

Instructions: Fill in the blanks with the most appropriate option to correctly complete the sentence.

Word bank

- must
- got
- better
- put
- have
- need

1. I'd _____ put the yogurt in the fridge.
2. I've _____ to saute the onions before adding them to the sauce.
3. Then I'll _____ to let the sauce simmer after I add the onions.
4. You _____ wash your hands before you start cooking.
5. We'll _____ to serve the food as soon as it's ready.