Let's Start!

Stress? What stress? I'm taking it easy!

Learning Outcome

Identify and provide solutions to problems in a range of social contexts.

Ask your partner:

- What do you do to avoid or reduce stress in your life?
- Do you practice a sport? Do you have a hobby?
- Does it help reduce stress?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about healthy habits at work.
- I can express what is necessary.
- I can talk about how something happens or how someone behaves.

Let's Explore!

Chef Bruce tells Vanessa to lighten up* a little! She needs to hone** her people skills!

* To "lighten up" means to take things lightly, not seriously.

** To "hone" is to refine, improve or make perfect.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Chef Bruce: Hey Vanessa, you look a little tired today. Is everything alright?
- Vanessa: Working as a manager is more stressful than I thought! That customer complaint really hurt.
- Chef Bruce: Like a knife wound! I know all about that! I think you ought to be a bit more thick-skinned.
- Vanessa: What do you suggest? How is it going to magically happen?
- Chef Bruce: Well, you shouldn't take everything so seriously, for starters.
- Vanessa: That's easy for you to say! You spend all day in the kitchen, happily cooking. I have to make sure that every meal goes smoothly! It's hard work!
- Chef Bruce: I know you work hard, Vanessa, but you also need to lighten up a little. You should deal with customers firmly but cheerfully.
- Vanessa: Should I tell a funny joke every time a client speaks rudely to me?
- Chef Bruce: Haha. You shouldn't wait until they behave inappropriately. It will only escalate the problem. You've got to hone those people skills!
- Vanessa: You're one to talk! I wouldn't come near you with your knife skills!

Learning Points

Expressing What is Necessary

You use modals like should and must or expressions like You have got to ... or You are going to have to ... to express what is necessary.

You can use the following to express what is necessary:

- You had better ...
- You have got to ...
- I'm going to have to ...
- You need to ...
- You ought ...

Examples:

- Manager: You need to lighten up a little.
- Waiter: That's easy for you to say.
- Manager: You'd better stop taking everything so seriously!

Learning Points

Adverbs of Manner

Adverbs of Manner add more information to verbs to make them more specific. They usually come after the main verb.

Example:

She walked. vs. She walked slowly.

How did she walk? Slowly.

Many adverbs are formed by adding -ly to an adjective:

Examples: quick - quickly, slow - slowly

Some adverbs are formed by adding -ily to adjectives ending in -y:

Example: angry - angrily

The adverbs fast, hard, well and straight are exceptions.

| Adjective     | Adverb          |
|---------------|-----------------|
| magical       | magically       |
| serious       | seriously       |
| happy         | happily         |
| smooth        | smoothly        |
| firm          | firmly          |
| cheerful      | cheerfully      |
| inappropriate | inappropriately |
| hard          | hard            |

Examples:

- I make sure that every meal goes smoothly.
- We need to handle our customers firmly but cheerfully.
- We must handle the situation carefully.
- He sometimes behaves inappropriately.
